

CMSA - NYC presents a 1.5 Credit Course for All Members

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS OF COMPLEX DISCHARGES (1.5 CREDIT HOURS)

Presented by Eileen Zenker, LCSW

When:

Tuesday May 20th, 2025

5 to 6:00pm: Registration & Networking

6 to 7:30pm: Continuing Education Class

Where:

CaringKind

360 Lexington Avenue, 3rd Floor, New York,
NY 10017

Speaker:

Eileen Zenker, LCSW, CCM, certified in bioethics, is currently the Director of Social Work at Affirmed Home Care. She is also an adjunct faculty member at Touro College School of Social Work and the Silberman School of Social Work at Hunter College teaching Practice and Human Behavior and Social Environment and Practicum to social work students as part of their field work. She has presented at many national conferences, CMSA, American Society of Aging and NASW, in addition to presenting at many local conferences.

Thank You to Our Host:

PLEASE REGISTER FOR THIS EVENT cmsa-nyc.org

Members: Free | Non-Members: $15*

*Any class fees paid by non-members will be credit against their CMSA NYC Chapter annual dues upon joining